Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 29 October 2004.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgments

1. Acknowledgment is made of the amendment filed 10/29/04.

Drawings

2. The drawings were received on 10/29/04. These drawings are approved.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dunbridge et al. (US2001/0022246 A1) and in further view of Geschwender (US 4,611,684 A).

With respect to claim 1, Dunbridge et al. discloses an apparatus for mounting a power tool 32 to a vehicle 10, said vehicle having a frame member 18, said power tool having a battery pack 50, a tool shaft member 34, and a means 32 (reference numeral used twice in publication) for controlling an on/off mode of the tool, a transmission system (or chain, not numbered), means 42,46 for mounting said tool to said vehicle, first means 40 for coupling said tool shaft to a driven wheel 22, and a second means 38 for coupling said transmission to said vehicle, as shown in figures 1-7. Dunbridge et al.

Art Unit: 3618

does not disclose a "free wheel assembly" for preventing damage to motor when going in reverse. Geschwender does disclose a free wheel assembly or ratchet wheel on a powered scooter for preventing the power plant from reverse rotation which can cause damage, as recited in column 4, lines 44-61. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the first coupling means of the motorized scooter of Dunbridge et al. with a free wheel assembly of Geschwender in order to prevent damage to the tool motor when the vehicle goes in reverse or if the tool is off.

With respect to claim 2, Dunbridge et al. discloses said mounting bracket as forming a collar member 44 coupled to said mounting bracket 42, wherein said tool is at a predetermined angle relative to the longitudinal axis of the vehicle, as shown in figures 3, 4, and 6.

With respect to claim 3, Dunbridge discloses a holding device 60 for releasably secure the tool to the mounting plate, as shown in figures 6 and 7.

With respect to claim 4, Dunbridge discloses the tool as having a shaft receiving member, (or chuck, not numbered), as shown in figure 3.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 10/29/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In response to applicant's argument that there is no suggestion to combine the references, the examiner recognizes that obviousness can only be established by combining or modifying the teachings of the prior art to produce the claimed invention where there is some teaching, suggestion, or motivation to do so found either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 5 USPQ2d 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1988) and In re Jones, 958 F.2d 347, 21 USPQ2d 1941 (Fed. Cir. 1992). In this case, the use of one way free wheels in the art of scooters and bikes is viewed as well known in order to prevent unwanted reverse rotation which can cause damage to motors and/or occupants.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
